

Virginia's Black, Indigenous, and People of Color Historic Preservation Grant Fund

Full Application Scoring

All grant projects will go through two rounds of scoring using this scoresheet. The first round is done by internal DHR staff and the second round includes external stakeholders. Questions 1 through 8 are rated on a 5-point scale with 1 being the lowest score and 5 being the highest.

1. Does the application outline a project with clear and feasible goals and objectives?
  - 1-5, no to adequate to very clear and feasible
2. Does the application clearly define the project's connection to specific BIPOC community/s
  - 1-5, no to adequate to well defined
3. Based on the application, how much community engagement appears to have been done up to this point?
  - 1-5, none to adequate to extensive community engagement
4. Does the application adequately explain the positive community benefit of the proposed work?
  - 1-5, no to adequate to well defined
5. How much community involvement does the application outline, both up to this point and during the project work?
  - 1-5, none to adequate to extensive community involvement
6. Does the application address if the proposed project will mitigate a specific threat to the historic resource?
  - 1-5, no threat to clear and eminent threat
7. Based on the presented application, does the project appear to be shovel-ready?
  - 1-5, no to somewhat to fully shovel ready
8. Does the application make clear the overall merits of the proposed project?
  - 1-5, no to somewhat to well defined merit
9. Based on the application, do you believe that this applicant has financial need?
  - Yes- 2 points
  - No- 0 points
10. Based on the application, does this project appear to support public investment and interest through (1 point each):
  - Education
  - Recreation
  - Research
  - Heritage tourism
  - Community development

Additional notes or comments: